Office Memorandum

Subject: Increasing of seating capacity from 20-25 per unit in Pvt. ITOTs-regarding

In reference to matter on the above cited subject, it is informed that vide letter No. DGT-T-11012/01/2021-O/o DIR(CFIs) dated 01/02/2021, it was communicated to the Hon'ble Minister SDE Office that CITS seats were enhanced from 20 to 25 due to EWS reservation for only NSTIs & Govt. ITOTs in compliance with the Office Memorandum of M/o HRD F.No. 12-4/2019-U1 dated 17, January 2019 except that Private ITOTs do not follow the reservation policy of EWS.

The Private ITOTs were affiliated for the seating capacity of 20 based on infrastructure and tools & equipment applicable. Now the admission process for the academic session 2021-22 has started and a decision needs to be taken for finalizing the seating capacity for Private ITOTs as representation has been received from Association of Pvt. ITOTs requesting for increasing the seats to 25 is to be resolved.

In this regard, a committee with the approval of the DG has been constituted as under:

1. Shri. K.S. Rao, Director DGT(Hqs) - Chairman
2. Shri. Ravi Chilukoti, JDT, TC Cell - Member
3. Shri. Harshvardhan Sharma, AD, CFI - Member for resolving the issue on the subject matter and further discussion with the Private ITOT's for exploring the feasibility of increasing the infrastructure pertaining to tools & equipment to accommodate 25 trainees per unit at a time.

In view of above, the members of the committee as mentioned above are to look into the matter for resolving the said matter, as per relevant guidelines/rules.
